The general idea of the page is to set Page1 as the main page, with three "Explore more" buttons to go to the other three pages for more content. The theme of the four pages is an online video game called Overwatch, which focuses on news, history and characters of this game.

Page 1 is the most informative page and contains five sections. At the top is the page header, which contains the Overwatch logo, the page name "OVERWATCH WIKI" and hotkeys to the rest sections of the page, the hotkeys are designed as four rectangular squares with a border for better identification. The second section is about news of Overwatch, which is divided into three subsections to show more content.

The third part is the history of Overwatch, the game has gone through two versions, namely Overwatch launched in 2016 and Overwatch 2 just launched in 2022, so this part is divided into two parts to introduce. The fourth part is the game characters in the Watchtower, which is the heroes display area. Mainly introduced three different types of hero, and each one is given a link to other pages to learn more about that. The last part is the page footer, which is mainly to express gratitude to the people who visit the page. When navigating to the bottom of the page, you can always return to the top of the page by clicking on the Overwatch logo in the bottom right corner.

In terms of the color scheme of Page 1, the background color of most parts of the page are in different shades of blue, including light sky blue, royal blue, navy, medium blue and steel blue, while the page title and footer are in more eye-catching orange to attract attention. In the upper right corner of the page, there are two buttons to switch between light mode and dark mode, and when dark mode is turned on, the background color of the page turns to black, while the color of the page title and footer turns to dark slate gray. Most of the text except the page title is white and bolded to enhance readability.

The web design of pages 2, 3 and 4 are basically the same, the main difference lies in their contents. Page 2 shows the image and introduction of all tank heroes, while page 3 and page 4 show all damage heroes and support heroes respectively.

Pages 2, 3 and 4 is divided into 3 main sections. The first part still has the Overwatch logo and the name of the page "HEROES OF OVERWATCH", but the difference is that the right side of the page header introduces what type of heroes are displayed on the page. The second part is the main content of the page. Three pages introduce all the current tank, damage and support heroes of Overwatch 2. All the heroes and their introductions are arranged in the way of two per line and vertical alignment, which has the advantage of presenting a neat appearance. At the bottom of the second section, you can also choose your favorite hero and submit them. Finally, the footer contains three buttons to navigate to other pages, allowing the browser to jump from page to page at will.

The overall background color design of pages 2, 3 and 4 is basically the same as page 1, except that this time only light sky blue and dodger blue are used in addition to the page title and footer. The content section still uses bold white text, while the page title and footer use larger bold black text.
